

HIGH-IMPACT ORGANIZATIONS REQUIRE HIGH-IMPACT PEOPLE

At Impact Search Advisors by Nonprofit HR, we understand that search is not just a recruitment activity, but an opportunity to define your organization and the change it will drive for years to come. Our search processes are collaborative and focused.

With your organization's specific goals in mind, we work in partnership with you to find the best, most qualified executives, human resources and nonprofit professionals to lead and support all core functions of your mission.

We serve social impact organizations, including associations and social enterprises.

HOW WE PARTNER WITH MISSION-DRIVEN ORGANIZATIONS:

Executive & Professional Search

Our expert consultants understand that your mission is powered by its people. That is why our experienced consultants partner with you every step of the way, from sourcing and vetting the right executive and professional-level candidates to negotiating compensation.

Interim Search

Effective interim leadership matters and Impact Search Advisors understands that. We find and place the most effective leaders to meet your organization's unique leadership needs during transitions.

Recruitment Outsourcing

If your organization's talent acquisition needs exceed the internal capacity to fill vacant roles, Impact Search Advisors can serve as an extension of your recruiting team! We add value by closing the gaps in your recruitment function with sector-specific search expertise.

"Greenpeace USA has engaged Nonprofit HR to lead and drive multiple strategic human resources efforts that impact our ability to deliver on our mission. We are especially appreciative for the expertise and leadership they provided while shepherding us through the executive search process, helping us to identify and hire a dynamic business partner to serve as our Chief Operating Officer." -Annie Leonard, Executive Director, Greenpeace USA

Why partner with us for your search needs?

Having the right talent—in the right roles, at the right time—is critical to your organization's success. Impact Search Advisors by Nonprofit HR was founded with one goal in mind: to strengthen the social impact sector by partnering with and advising its people.
