

Melissa T. Forburger, CAE, SHRM-CP
Senior Vice President
Association Management Strategies, Inc.

As Senior Vice President Melissa has provided Leadership and Human Resources expertise to AMS and its clients since 2015.

Melissa's career has been dedicated to the nonprofit industry, working for association management companies and at a stand-alone association. She's been intimately involved in both organization and client growth, financial oversight, people management, grants management, and operations management.

Melissa has worked closely with over 15 Boards of Directors, countless committees and workgroups, and partners with these volunteer leaders to advance the mission of their organizations.

Melissa has served as a mentor to over 25 young professionals during her career and maintains close relationships with many today.

A graduate of Virginia Tech with a B.A. in Communications, Melissa holds the Certified Association Executive (CAE) credential from the American Society of Association Executives and is a Certified Professional (SHRM-CP) through the Society for Human Resource Management.