

FAQs: Executive Alliance for Social Impact

What is the Executive Alliance for Social Impact and who is it for? A professional peer group for senior-most executives of social impact organizations, including founders, CEOs, presidents and executive directors. The program was created by Nonprofit HR and will be led by CEO, Lisa Brown Alexander.

How long is the program? The program lasts for approximately one month, from April 4 - April 25.

Is it in-person or virtual? Two of the sessions are in-person and two are virtual. The in-person sessions run for eight hours and the virtual sessions run for three hours.

Where will the event take place? Wellspring Manor & Spa, located outside of Washington, D.C.

Is there a vetting process for cohort members? Yes. You must meet the cohort criteria. Our team is standing by to review your request to join. We guarantee a response within two business days.

How large will the cohort be? To ensure an exclusive and meaningful experience, this program will be limited to 16 executives.

Is there a cost? Yes, there is a fee of $3,997. There is an early-bird discount until February 7 for $3,697.

Visit our information pages to learn more about this exclusive program, see the full curriculum, how to apply and accommodations details as well.