Jalen Epps

Vice Present
Treasury Management Officer

Jalen I Epps, is a seasoned Treasury Management Officer with extensive experience delivering innovative financial solutions to clients across higher education, healthcare, and nonprofit sectors. With a proven track record of optimizing cash management, streamlining operations, and enhancing financial performance, James is dedicated to helping organizations achieve their strategic objectives.

Since joining J.P. Morgan in 2015 as an intern from the Year Up United program, Jalen has worked across multiple lines of business which has expanded his knowledge of what the bank offers. This includes his time in the Corporate & Investment Bank as an Client Service Analyst working with institutional clients, Corporate Sector as a Program Manager focused on partnering with non-profit workforce development programs to hire talent from nontraditional career paths, and the Commercial Bank as a Treasury Sales Associate.

Jalen is a Certified Treasury Professional and graduated from Southern New Hampshire University in Manchester, NH, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a concentration in logistics and operations. Outside of work, Jalen remains passionate about closing the opportunity divide and is an active participant in the Year Up and broader nonprofit community, previously serving as the Vice-Chair of the Year Up Boston Alumni Board, and currently as a mentor and guest speaker. He resides in Clinton, Maryland with his wife and daughter.
